

Fed up with being taken for granted?

Send them a message on 5th May

Decades of loyalty to the Conservatives is being repaid with cuts to local services.

Taken for granted on bins and local services.

Why are many people in Derbyshire Dales still not able to secure an adequate broadband connection, a reliable mobile phone signal or even have their bins emptied regularly?

The Conservatives have taken you, your family, friends and neighbours for granted: their election pledges are a list of the things that they have failed to do whilst in control!

We need a councillor who will be standing up for local people. Not someone who will always vote for whatever their leader has decided. That's why people are taking this opportunity to send the Council and the Government a message by backing the Lib Dems.

Taken for granted with little help for rural areas.

The Chancellor's Spring 'Mini Budget' has sent a shiver down the spine of families who are drowning in spiralling bills. He is trying to swindle the British public by burying the true cost of his tax hikes. He has insulted millions of squeezed families across the country by thinking he can hide this in the small print. Rishi Sunak is following Boris Johnson's lead by not being up front and honest with the country.

The Chancellor made no announcement in his Spring Statement to protect those reliant on heating oil and LPG. With large numbers of households across the area off the national gas grid, the bare minimum the Government could have announced was a plan to include oil and LPG in the energy price cap.

Conservative voters are switching to support

MONTY MONTEITH

Monty Monteith and the Liberal Democrats are fighting to get the bins emptied reliably, fix our roads and get a fairer deal for local businesses.

Monty lives in the ward, in Atlow, where he has run his own business for many years. He previously spent 10 years in the Army and 5 years with international companies. He has always taken a keen interest in his local community, as PTA chair, school governor and churchwarden - and as an amateur rugby coach.

Monty comments, "Locals know this is a unique opportunity to send the Government a message after years of our area being taken for granted."

Local champion Monty is the strong voice we need as our next councillor.

People here are backing Monty Monteith on 5th May.

As support for the Conservatives slumps, more and more people are uniting behind Lib Dem Monty Monteith as the clear alternative.

Residents looking to send the Government a message know that Monty is the only person who can beat the Conservatives.

You told us in the survey

Although I have voted Labour in the past, I am voting Lib Dem to send a message to the Tories. I disapprove of their ungenerous attitude to Ukrainian refugees and their lack of a moral compass.

I am voting Lib Dem so that we can have our voice heard over problems with roads and public transport.

I am voting Lib Dem to address the poor decision making that we have seen locally and nationally.
